PROVIDER NOTE

CHIEF COMPLAINT: Fever and left ear pain x 6 hours.

HPI: 7-year-old female (E.S.) brought in by her grandfather, Mr. Smith, who reports that the patient complained of left ear pain after dinner and felt warm. Temperature at home approx. 21:30 was 103 F by oral thermometer. Grandfather gave no antipyretic prior to arrival. No vomiting, no rash, no neck stiffness. Patient attends first grade; per Mr. Smith, a classmate had "an ear thing" last week. Immunizations up to date per grandfather.

Father, Steve, was reached by phone at 22:15 at (443) 555-0129 and verbally consented to blood draw. Father stated he was "out driving" and would meet them at home. Mother not reached (voicemail).

EXAM: Alert, mildly ill-appearing, consolable. L TM erythematous and bulging with loss of landmarks; R TM clear. Oropharynx mildly erythematous without exudate. Neck supple. Lungs clear. Wt 23.4 kg.

RESULTS: Rapid strep negative. CBC: WBC 14.2 with left shift. ASSESSMENT: Acute otitis media, left (H66.92). PLAN: Amoxicillin 90 mg/kg/day divided BID x 10 days; ibuprofen 10 mg/kg q6h prn. Return precautions reviewed. Follow up with pediatrician in 48-72 hours.

DISPOSITION: Discharged home in stable condition at 23:31 with grandfather. Discharge instructions reviewed with Mr. Smith, who verbalized understanding and stated that the patient's father would pick up the prescription in the morning. Patient's guardian of record on file: K. Delaney (mother); S. Smith (father).

ATTESTATION

I personally evaluated this patient and agree with the triage documentation. Grandfather was present in the exam room for the entire provider encounter (22:47 to 23:12).

Electronically signed: Anand Rao, MD -- 05/03/2024 23:44 -- DEA FR4471023

Records certification: The foregoing is a true copy of the medical record of patient E.S. maintained by Harbor Pediatric Urgent Care. Released to counsel for the defendant pursuant to written authorization of the patient's parent, Stephen M. Smith, dated May 8, 2024. Questions regarding this record may be directed to Dr. Rao or to the Medical Records office.
